

Biographical Sketch for G. Sayeed Choudhury

G. Sayeed Choudhury is the Associate Dean for Research Data Management and Hodson Director of the Digital Research and Curation Center at the Sheridan Libraries of Johns Hopkins University. He is also the Director of Operations for the Institute of Data Intensive Engineering and Science (IDIES) based at Johns Hopkins. He is a member of the National Academies Board on Research Data and Information and the US Coordinating Committee for the Research Data Alliance.

Choudhury is a Board member for DuraSpace and a Council member for the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR). Previously, he was a member of the Digital Library Federation Advisory Committee, Library of Congress' National Digital Stewardship Alliance Coordinating Committee and Federation of Earth Scientists Information Partnership (ESIP) Executive Committee.

Choudhury is a Senior Presidential Fellow with the Council on Library and Information Resources. He has been a Lecturer in the Department of Computer Science at Johns Hopkins and a Research Fellow at the Graduate School of Library and Information Science at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He is the recipient of the 2012 OCLC/LITA Kilgour Award.

Choudhury has served as principal investigator for projects funded through the National Science Foundation, Institute of Museum and Library Services, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, Microsoft Research, and a venture capital group. He is the Principal Investigator for the Data Conservancy, one of the awards through the National Science Foundation's DataNet program. He has oversight for data curation research and development at Johns Hopkins. Through his administrative role, he advises the central administration at Johns Hopkins regarding data management and works with the Johns Hopkins University Data Management Services.

Choudhury has published articles in journals such as the International Journal of Digital Curation, D-Lib, the Journal of Digital Information, First Monday, and Library Trends. He has served on committees for the Digital Curation Conference, Open Repositories, Joint Conference on Digital Libraries, and Web-Wise. He has presented at various conferences or forums including Educause, Coalition for Networked Information, Digital Library Federation, American Library Association, Association of College and Research Libraries, and international venues including International Federation of Libraries Association, eResearch Australasia, New Zealand eResearch Symposium, the Kanazawa Information Technology Roundtable, and the North America-China Conference.